3.4. The Race Organizer (before or during the Race) has the right, and in some exceptional situations is required to postpone, fully or partially reduce, completely or temporarily interrupt, partially close or cancel the Race if it is probable that the planned Race or its continuation may lead to a threat to life and health or the loss of property. In this case, the Participants under no circumstances have the right to demand a refund of the paid registration fee for participation in the Race.

3.5. In case of force majeure and/or security reasons, and/or in the presence of any other circumstances that make it impossible to conduct the Race, the Organizer has the right (and in case of official orders from public authorities and/or local governments is required) to cancel the Race in whole or in part or, if possible, postpone the Race to another date and time. At the same time, the Participants under no circumstances have the right to demand a refund of the paid registration fee for participation in the Race, and the Organizer is not responsible for the Participants' losses.

The Organizer is not responsible for non-acquaintance or late acquaintance with the specified information and strongly recommends the Participants to regularly follow current information on possible changes to the Race conditions.

  - (ii) the Judge sees a possibility of breaking the rules;
  - (iii) no advantage was gained.
- c.) Oral warning: The Judge blows the whistle, the athlete must be stopped if necessary, the Judge asks the athlete to change his/her behavior, and immediately allows him/her to continue the Race.

3.3. Penalty time:

- a.) The Judge is not required to issue a warning before imposing a more severe penalty;
- b.) Penalty time is an adequate punishment for violations that do not require disqualification;
- c.) Penalty time must be spent in the penalty zone, transit zone or at the place of violation;
- d.) The Judges decide when the athlete must serve the penalty time
- e.) There are two types of violations for which athletes can be penalized by imposing a penalty time:
  - (i) Violation of drafting rules as specified in 4.4. and 4.5;
  - (ii) Other violations. See the list in Appendix B.

f.) The duration of penalty time depends on the type of violation:

(i) Procedure for announcing a penalty for violating drafting rules:

- 5 minutes in long-distance races;
- 5 minutes in medium distance races;
- 2 minutes in standard distance races;
- 1 minute in triathlon sprint and other short distances.

(ii) Other violations:

- 1 minute in long-distance races.
- 30 seconds in medium distance races;
- 15 seconds in standard distance races;
- 10 seconds in a triathlon sprint and other short distances.

g.) Penalty Notice: The Judge determines duration of penalty time and must notify the athlete as soon as possible as soon as it can be done safely:

(i) Procedure for penalty notice for violating drafting rules:

- The Judge blows a whistle, shows a blue card, calls the race number of the athlete and announces: "Penalty for drafting, you must stop in the next penalty zone." The Judge must make sure that the athlete did receive a penalty notice.

(ii) Other violations:

- Violations at the start and in the swimming segment: athletes serve these penalties in transit zone 1 before touching any equipment. The Judge is near the athlete's place in the transit zone, blows a whistle, shows a yellow card and marks the penalty time;
- Violations in the cycling segment: the Judge blows a whistle, shows a yellow card, calls the race number of the athlete and says: "Penalty time, you must stop in the next penalty zone" or "Penalty time, you must stop in the penalty zone of the running segment". The Judge must make sure that the athlete is notified of the imposition of a penalty (see table below);
- Violations in the transit zone and in the running segment: athletes may be notified of penalties by a whistle, the Judge may show a yellow card, call the athlete's race number and say "Penalty time, you must stop", or the race number is displayed on a panel located in the penalty zone. It is the athlete's responsibility to check whether his/her number is displayed on the penalty zone panel (see table below).
- Athletes who are charged a penalty time may stop in the penalty zone and serve the penalty, or they may proceed to the finish line. Refusal to stop implies disqualification upon crossing the finish line. In this case, the athlete can appeal the penalty. Evidence will only be available if an appeal is lodged.

2.3. Penalties according to the categories of athletes:

		Unauthorized drafting in categories	Age groups
Start		T1	T1

Course		Penalty zone in the running segment	T1
Transit zone 1		Penalty zone in the running segment	Warning in T1
Cycling race		Penalty zone in the cycling segment	Penalty zone in the cycling segment
Transit zone 2		Penalty zone in the running segment	Warning in T2
Running		Penalty zone in the running segment	Warning/Penalty time on the spot

Notes: All references to elite categories include athletes in the "Elite", "U23", "Juniors" and "Youth" categories. In winter triathlon, the penalty zone of the running segment is replaced by the penalty zone of the skiing segment. In duathlon and aquathlon, the penalty zone is located in the 2nd running segment.

2.4. The order of serving the penalty time:

- a.) The Judge who imposes the penalty time is not required to explain the reason;
- b.) Upon receipt of a blue or yellow card, the athlete must follow the instructions of the Judge;
- c.) Serving the penalty time in the first transit zone (for any violations so far):
  - (i) The Judge holds a yellow card when the athlete reaches his/her place in the transit zone. The athlete is instructed to stop without touching any equipment, the Judge begins the countdown. If the athlete touches or moves any equipment, the Judge shall ask the athlete to stop using the equipment, and the penalty time shall be paused. After the athlete fulfills the requirements, the countdown is continued;
  - (ii) When the penalty time expires, the referee says "Go!" and the athlete can continue the race.
- d.) Penalty time in the cycling penalty zone:
  - (i) The numbers of penalized athletes are not displayed in the cycling penalty zone. It is the athlete's responsibility to report about the received penalty in the next penalty zone of the course;
  - (ii) The penalized athlete enters the penalty zone, gets off the bike, tells the Judge his/her race number, the number of penalties and the color of the cards shown. The countdown of the penalty time begins when the athlete performs all the above actions, and ends at the command of the Judge "Go", then the athlete can continue the race. If the athlete leaves the zone, the Judge asks the athlete to return, and the countdown of time is paused. After the athlete fulfills the requirements, the countdown is continued;
  - (iii) During the time in the penalty zone, the athlete may consume only food and/or water the athlete has on his/her bicycle or himself/herself;

- (iv) Athletes are prohibited from using the toilet while serving a penalty in the cycling penalty zone. The countdown of the penalty time is paused for the time of using the toilet;
- (v) It is forbidden to repair equipment or perform any kind of bicycle maintenance work during the countdown of the penalty time in the cycling penalty zone.

e.) Penalty time in the running penalty zone:

- (i) Race numbers of the penalized athletes are clearly displayed on the panel in the penalty zone;
- (ii) The penalized athlete enters the penalty zone, tells his/her race number and the number of penalties accumulated. The countdown of the penalty time begins when the athlete performs all the above actions, and ends at the command of the Judge "Go", then the athlete can continue the race. If the athlete leaves the zone, the Judge asks the athlete to return, and the time is paused. After the athlete fulfills the requirements, the countdown is continued;
- (iii) The race number of the penalized athlete is removed from the panel after serving the penalty;
- (iv) A penalized athlete may serve a penalty in any lap of the race;
- (v) During the relay, any team member who has not yet completed his/her stage may serve the penalty time;
- (vi) Penalties must be posted on the panel before the athlete completes the first half of the race. Penalties placed after this time are invalid.

2.5. Disqualification:

a.) General provisions:

- (i) Disqualification is a type of penalty that is applied in case of serious violations of the rules, such as, but not limited to, repeated violations of the rules of cycling drafting, as well as dangerous or unsportsmanlike conduct;

b.) Penalty procedure:

- (i) If time and conditions allow, the judge imposes a disqualification penalty as follows:
  - blows a whistle;
  - shows a red card;
  - announces the race number of the athlete and says "Disqualification";
  - for security reasons, the Judge may wait with the announcement of disqualification.
- (ii) Instead, the athlete may be notified of disqualification by placing the athlete's number on a white panel in the post-finish zone;
- (iii) The athlete must be notified of disqualification if it was issued after the athlete crossed the finish line and if it was not displayed on the panel. Athletes must respond to the Technical Delegate within 5 days as to whether they wish to appeal.

c.) Procedure after disqualification:

- (i) The athlete is allowed to finish the race after the announcement of disqualification.

3.5. The right to appeal:

- a.) Athletes punished by penalties have the right to appeal, except for those who violated the rules of drafting.

3. SWIMMING:

3.1. General rules:

- a.) Athletes can use any style of swimming to move in the water. They can both swim and walk in the water. They are allowed to push off the ground at the beginning and at the end of each swimming lap;
- b.) Athletes are required to follow a specified swimming route;

- c.) Athletes are allowed to stand on the bottom or rest, holding on to a stationary object such as a buoy or stationary boat;
- d.) In an emergency, the athlete should raise his/her hand above their head and call for help. If the athlete is provided with official assistance, he/she is required to stop the race;
- e.) Athletes can keep their own space in the water in a sportsmanlike way:
  - (i) If athletes accidentally come into contact during a swim and then move away immediately, no penalties will be imposed;
  - (ii) If athletes come into contact while swimming and one athlete continues to impede the progress of another without moving to the side, such actions will result in a penalty time;
  - (iii) If an athlete expressly and intentionally prevents another athlete from moving forward, gains a dishonest advantage, and causes potential harm, such actions will result in disqualification.

3.2. Use of wetsuits:

- a.) The use of wetsuits is regulated by the following tables:

Athletes of categories "Elite/PRO", "U23", "Juniors" and "Youth":

b.) If the weather dictates other conditions (e.g. strong wind, rain, temperature change, etc.), the Technical Delegate, having consulted the Medical Delegate (if available), may impose restrictions on the length of the swimming distance or decide on the use of wetsuits. The final decision is made one hour before the start and must be clearly communicated to the athletes through the Technical Delegate;

c.) For aquathlon competitions (usually “running+swimming+running”), the local Race Organizing Committee must plan a “swimming+running” option when the water temperature is expected to be below 22°C. In cases where the planned format is "running+swimming+running", but on the day of the Race the water temperature is below 22°C, the format must be changed to "swimming+running"; d.) The water temperature must be measured one hour before the start on the day of the race. Measurements should be made in the middle of the swimming distance and in two other places at a depth of 60 cm. The lowest measured temperature will be taken as the official water temperature.

3.5. Start procedure:

a.) After all the athletes have taken their positions (confirmed and fixed by the Judges of the start line), the command "On your marks!" is given, and the athletes take a step towards the starting line, but do not step on it.

b.) At any time after this command is given, the starting signal is given by the horn. Athletes begin to move forward toward the first buoy until they reach the water.

c.) Judges involved in the start procedure:

(i) Two Judges of the start stand side by side in the center of the starting zone behind the athletes:

- The first Judge at the start is responsible for giving the command "On your marks!";
- The second Judge is responsible for giving the starting signal.

(ii) Two false start judges stand on either side of the starting zone to clearly see the start moment:

- To give a "false start" signal (several short signals) the judges use a horn;
- Photo/video cameras are used to record false starts.

d.) False start: In the event of a false start (several athletes start moving forward before the start signal is given), all athletes must return to their previous positions. The process is controlled by the judges of the starting line. The start procedure starts over;

e.) Valid start with athletes who started early: In the event of an early start of several athletes, the race may continue and the false start judges may decide that the start is valid. The athletes who started early receive a penalty time in the transit zone 1. In case of a relay, the penalty time is awarded to the first athlete in the team;

f.) A similar procedure is used at the start of any competition in triathlon disciplines, starting with running, with adaptation of the swimming start for the running start.

3.6. Start procedure

a.) Athletes are grouped in the pre-start zone according to the assigned starting wave;

b.) Athletes are called to the starting zone and they take their places at the start according to the Judge's instructions;

c.) After all the athletes have taken their positions, the Judge gives the command "On your mark!";

d.) At any time after this command, the starting signal is given by the horn. Athletes begin to move;

e.) False start: In the event of a false start (several athletes start moving forward before the start signal is given), all athletes must return to their previous positions. The process is controlled by the Judges of the starting line. The start procedure starts over;

f.) Valid start with athletes who started early: In the event of an early start of several athletes, the race may continue and the false start judges may decide that the start is valid. The athletes who started early will receive a penalty time corresponding to the course of the Race in the transit zone 1;

g.) A similar procedure shall be used at the start of any Triathlon competition beginning with running, with the adaptation of the swimming start for the running start;

h.) Athletes who start in any wave before the one to which they belong are subject to disqualification;

i.) Athletes who are late for the start of their starting wave must obtain the permission of the judge at the start line to start their race. The start time of such an athlete corresponds to the start time of the start wave to which he/she belongs.

3.7. Equipment:

a.) Swimming cap:

- (i) During the swimming segment, all athletes must wear the swimming cap of this official event;
- (ii) Swimming caps are provided by the local Race Organizing Committee;
- (iii) If an athlete decides to wear two caps, the second cap shall not contain the logos and the official cap shall be worn on top of the first one from the time the athletes line up at the start of the start procedure;
- (iv) If an athlete does not wear the official swimming cap or modifies it in any way, he/she may receive a penalty, including being disqualified.

b.) Race suits (trisuit):

- (i) Athletes must wear officially approved race suits for swimming courses without wetsuits. If an athlete decides to wear more than one race suit, both suits must meet the requirements.
- (ii) The race suit must consist of 100% textile material, ie a material consisting of natural and/or synthetic individual threads, which are used to make fabric by weaving, knitting and/or netting (this usually does not apply to suits made only of nylon or lycra, which does not contain rubberized material such as polyurethane or neoprene);
- (iii) In cases when the use of wetsuits is prohibited, athletes are not allowed to wear clothing that covers arms below the shoulders, as well as covering parts of the legs below the knees, except as provided in paragraph 2.8.c.(iii);

c.) Wetsuits:

- (i) The thickness of a wetsuit should not exceed 5 mm. If a wetsuit consists of two items of clothing, the total thickness of the overlapping parts should not exceed a thickness of 5 mm;
- (ii) Any means of transportation that may favor an athlete or pose a danger to other athletes is prohibited;
- (iii) The outer part of the wetsuit must fit snugly against the athlete's body while swimming;
- (iv) A wetsuit may cover any part of the athlete's body except the face, hands and feet;
- (v) There are no restrictions on the length of the fastener;
- (vi) Wetsuits must comply with the provisions on authorized identification.

c.) Forbidden equipment:

- (i) Athletes are not allowed to wear or use:
  - Artificial means of transportation;
  - Items that help stay afloat;
  - Gloves;
  - Socks, except when the use of wetsuits is mandatory;
  - Wetsuits or any part of wetsuits when prohibited;
  - Non-certified wetsuits;
  - Tubes for swimming;
  - Race numbers (only when swimming without wetsuits)
  - Earpiece(s), or technical plugs that are inserted into or close the ears, except for protective earplugs;
  - An inflatable safety device (tube) put into action. If one has been put into action, the athlete must leave the course.
- (ii) Any jewelry that is potentially dangerous to the participant or to other athletes (athletes may be asked to remove any such items).

4. CYCLING:

4.1. General rules:

a.) Athletes are not allowed to:

- block other athletes;

- be in the cycling segment with a naked torso;
- move forward without a bike;
- use a bicycle other than the one provided for control.

b.) Dangerous behavior:

- (i) Athletes must follow the traffic rules provided for the Race, unless technical officials specify otherwise;
- (ii) An athlete who left the course for safety reasons must return to it without gaining any advantage. Otherwise, the athlete is punished with a penalty time, which must be served in the transit zone (for participants of age groups) or in the penalty zone of the running segment (for other categories);
- (iii) Dangerous cycling involves imposition of a penalty. Such cycling includes, but is not limited to, going around the other athlete on the wrong side;

a.) In general, during the Race, as well as during introductory sessions and official trainings, UCI (Union Cycliste Internationale) rules from January 1 of the current year apply:

- (i) UCI cycling highway rules for triathlon and duathlon races;
- (ii) UCI split start rules for non-draft triathlon and duathlon races;
- (iii) UCI Mountain Bike Racing Rules for Winter Triathlon, Cross Triathlon and Cross Duathlon.

b.) For non-draft races and age group races with authorized drafting:

c.) Wheels:

- (i) Wheels must not be fitted with mechanisms which accelerate the movement of the bicycle;
- (ii) Chamber tires must be well glued, eccentrics must be closed and tightly clamped, wheels must be properly secured to the frame;
- (iii) Both wheels must have serviceable brakes;
- (vi) In non-draft races, the rear wheel may be disc. But this provision may be revoked by the Technical Delegate for the sake of safety, for example in case of strong wind.

d.) Prohibited equipment:

- (i) Prohibited equipment includes, but is not limited to:
  - Headphones, headset, noise-absorbing earbuds, smart helmets that are inserted into the ears or cover them;
  - Glass containers;
  - Mirrors;

4.3. Bicycle inspection:

a.) The bicycle inspection shall include all the requirements set out in paragraph 5.2; b.) A visual inspection of the bicycle is carried out at the time of registration in the transit zone before the Race. Judges check the bikes for compliance with the Race Rules.

4.4. Drafting:

All races are carried out in the category “Draft illegal races”.

4.5. Overtaking:

- An athlete is considered to be overtaken when the front wheel of another athlete is ahead of his/her front wheel;
- After overtaking, the overtaken athlete must leave the draft zone of the athlete who overtook him, constantly moving in the direction of exit from the draft zone. Repeated advancement of the overtaken athlete before leaving the drafting zone will be considered a violation of the drafting rules;
- Overtaken athletes who stay in the overtaking area of the overtaking drafter for longer than the allotted time will be penalized for violating the drafting rules;

- Athletes should stay on the side of the track and not block other athletes. A block is when a rear-riding athlete is unable to pass due to an inconvenient position of the athlete in front;
- The Technical Delegate instructs the athletes during the briefing on which side they should pass the other athlete.
- The following illustrations apply to right-hand traffic races.

4.6. Penalty for drafting:

- Drafting is prohibited in “Draft illegal races”;
- Technical officials shall notify athletes who use drafting that they are penalized by the penalty time. Such communication must be clear and unambiguous;
- Athletes penalized by the penalty time must stop in the next penalty zone and stay there for a certain time, depending on the length of the distance. One minute for sprint distance, two minutes for standard distance and five minutes for medium and long distance;
- It is the responsibility of the penalized athlete to stop in the nearest penalty zone. If the athlete does not stop, he/she is disqualified;
- Repeated violation of drafting rules will result in disqualification from the standard or shorter distance race;
- A third violation of the drafting rules will result in disqualification from the medium and long distance race.
- Penalties for breach of the drafting rules are not subject to appeal.

4.7. Blocking:

- The athlete must stay on the side of the track and not pose a threat by blocking other athletes. A blockage is a situation when a lagging athlete cannot move forward due to the inconvenient position of the athlete ahead on the track. Athletes guilty of blocking receive a yellow card, and the penalty must be served in the nearest penalty zone.

5. RUNNING SEGMENT:

5.1. General rules:

a.) Athletes must:

- (i) run or walk;

- b.) Glass containers;

6. TRANSIT ZONE:

6.1. General rules:

- a.) All athletes must have their helmets securely fastened from the moment they take their bikes off the rack at the start of the cycling segment until the moment they place their bikes in the racks at the finish of the cycling segment.
- b.) Athletes should only use the bike rack that is designed specifically for them and must secure their bike in the bike rack.
  - (i) In traditional bicycle racks, the bike should be placed as follows:

- For the first transit zone: in a vertical position suspended by the front edge of the saddle on a horizontal bar so that the front wheel is directed towards the middle of the transit passage. Technical officials may make exceptions;
- For the second transit zone: In either direction, both sides of the handlebars, both brake levers or the bicycle seat must be 0.5 meters from the rack number or nameplate. The bicycle must be suspended in such a way as not to block or interfere with the movement of other athletes.

(ii) If there is an individual rack, the bicycle must be placed in the rack by the rear wheel in the first transit zone, and in the second transit zone - by any wheel.

c.) Athletes must place all their equipment, which will be used later in the Race, within 0.5 m of the container (box, basket). If no container is provided, 0.5 m is measured from a point on the ground below the rack number or nameplate. The container, if provided, must be within 0.5 m of the rack number or nameplate. All used equipment must be placed in a container, with the exception of cycling shoes, which may remain attached to the pedals. Equipment is considered to be placed in a container when all the items are packed in the package and the package is in the container. Only equipment to be used during the race may be left in the transit zone. All other property and equipment must be removed before the start of the race.

d.) If an athlete wishes to use the same running shoes in a duathlon for the second running segment, it does not need to be placed in a container in the first transit zone, but only one pair of shoes may be on the ground at any time during the race. Running shoes should be 0.5 meters from the athlete's container (rack numbers/nameplate).

e.) Cycling shoes, glasses, helmet and other cycling equipment can be placed on the bike in the first transit zone.

f.) Athletes must not keep other participants from moving through the transit zone.

g.) Athletes must not touch the equipment of another athlete in the transit zone.

h.) Cycling inside the transit zone is prohibited, except when the bike track passes through the transit zone. Bike mount and dismount lines are part of the transit zone.

i.) Athletes must mount their bikes after the mount line, one foot must be fully on the ground past the mount line.

j.) Athletes must dismount their bikes before the dismount line, one foot must be fully on the ground before the dismount line.

k.) During the stay in the transit zone (before the mount line and past the dismount line), athletes can move the bike only by pushing it with their hands.

l.) If an athlete loses his/her cycling shoes or other equipment during mounting or dismounting maneuvers, it will be picked up by technical officials without penalty.

m.) Nudity or obscene exposure is prohibited.

n.) Athletes are not allowed to stop in the passage of the transit zone;

o.) It is forbidden to mark positions of athletes in the transit zone. Marks, towels and items used to mark positions will be removed without any warning;

p.) The strap on the helmet must remain unbuttoned in the transit zone while the athlete passes the first stage.

- Time limit:

a.) The Technical Delegate may set a time limit for all races or any intermediate point;

b.) If there is a set time limit, this must be announced no later than 30 days before the closing of the registration process.

7. Team competitions: relay and team races

A team is considered registered if its representative has filled in the application, registration form and paid the entry fee for the team.

Participants are assigned a relay stage at registration. The order of participants can be changed on the website runukraine.org in the personal profile. During the relay race, the relay transfer procedure must take place in the special "transfer zone".

At the "swimming-cycling" stage, the relay is transferred outside the transit zone and before the mounting line.

At the "cycling-running" stage, the relay is transferred past the dismounting line.

The relay team can consist of three or two participants.

The relay teams compete in three competitions: men's relay teams, women's relay teams, mixed relay teams.

Upon completing the race, the relay teams, which took places 1st through 5th, must come to the information tent of the judges to validate the identities of team members. They must present an identity document, a race number and must wear a wristband received together with the start pack.

The result of a team in the Team races is the sum of the time of all four team members.

8. PROTESTS:

8.1. General provisions:

a.) A protest may be made against the behavior of the athlete, the Technical Official or the conditions of the Race. The athlete or representative may file a protest with the Chief Judge of the Race, provided that the protest has not previously been reviewed by the Technical Officials and has not been formally decided by the Chief Judge of the Race.
